

Trial of Summer Weekend Runway Alternation Program

May 25 to September 8, 2019

Toronto Pearson is trialing a summer weekend runway alternation program for sixteen (16) weekends (Saturdays and Sundays) in Summer 2019. The results of the Summer 2018 eight-weekend test indicated community support and operational feasibility for a longer summer trial.

Trial Details:

Dates: Weekends (Saturdays and Sundays) from May 25 to September 8, 2019

Time: 6:30 a.m. to midnight

Scope: East/west runways only

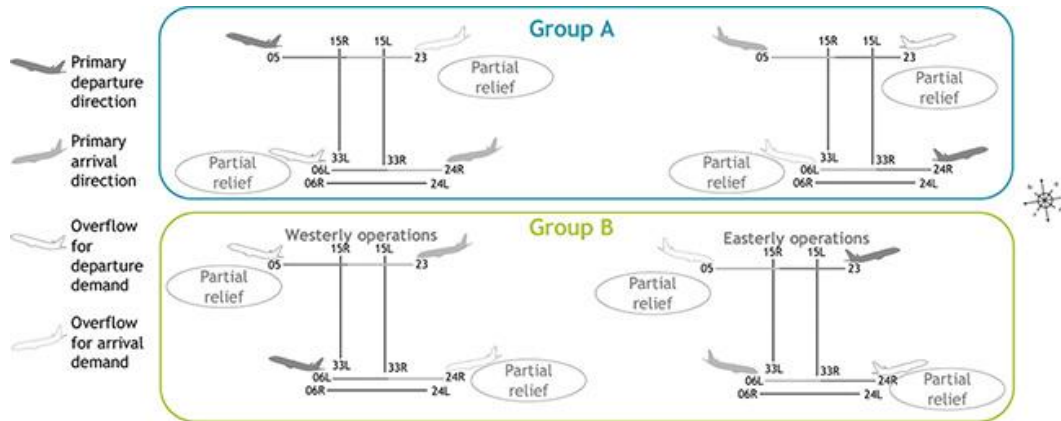

Schedule:

Group A: Communities under the final approach/initial departure paths in the northeast and in the southwest

Group B: Communities under the final approach/initial departure paths in the northwest and in the southeast

August 31-September 1	Partial Relief	Non-Relief
September 7-8	Non-Relief	Partial Relief

To continue to meet capacity requirements throughout the Summer Weekend Runway Alternation Program, the operational plan needs to provide options for both wind directions when using the east/west runways. For this reason, communities kitty-corner to each other will have the same relief weekends.
