Toronto Pearson

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CAREGIVERS

Toronto Pearson Airport provides a wide variety of accessible services and facilities designed to enable more choice and greater independence as you travel through. Visit www.TorontoPearson.com to learn more.

To make sure you have a safe and enjoyable trip, we recommend you notify your airline of your needs at least 48 hours before your flight.

SUNFLOWER LANYARDS

Lanyards are available for passengers with invisible disabilities to help identify that they may need extra help or additional time while travelling.

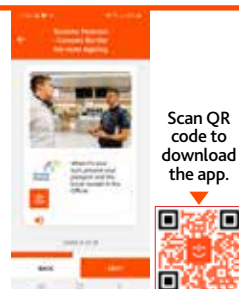

Lanyards can be picked up at information counters in Terminals 1 and 3 or can be requested by mail, at least 14 days before travel. For more information, visit:

<https://www.torontopearson.com/en/accessibility/sunflower-lanyards>.

MAGNUSCARDS

MagnusCards is an activity support app developed for autistic and neurodiverse people. The fun and free mobile app provides step-by-step visual, text and audio guidance for tasks at Toronto Pearson and many other activities of community living. Use MagnusCards to prepare for your flight, and to get from check-in to take off. Scan the QR code to the right to download the free app and start your journey today.

PREPARE FOR YOUR TRIP!

Now that you're all packed and ready for the airport, find where you're going on the map below and colour it.

SUNFLOWER LANYARD

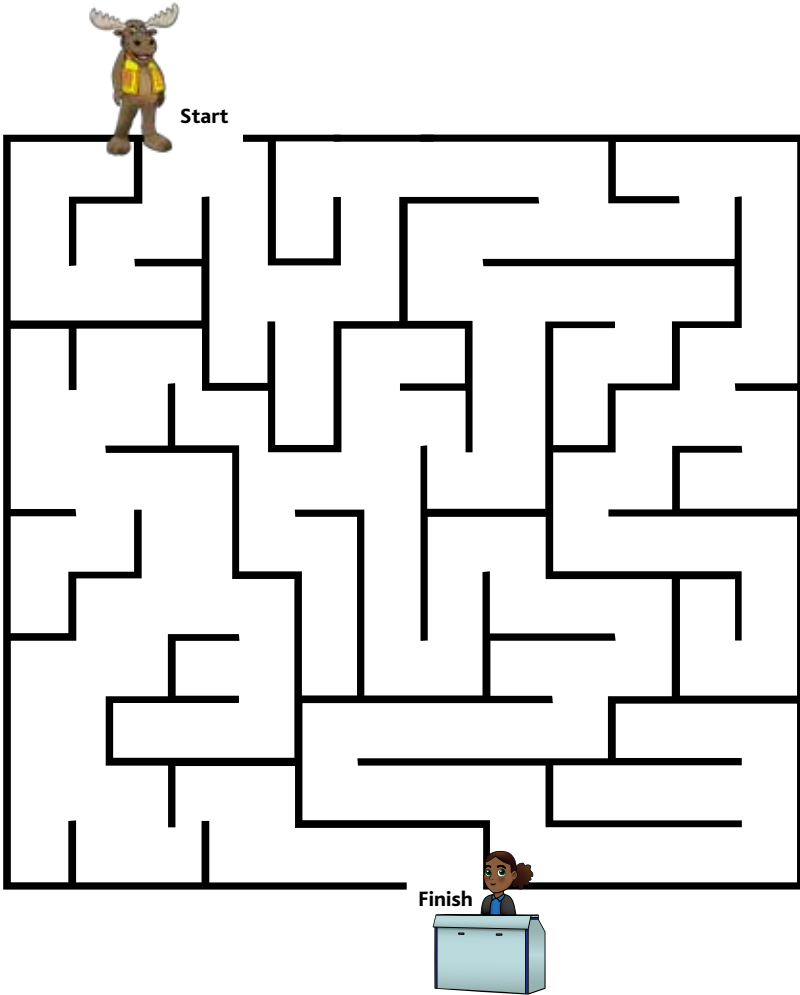

Visit the Information counter at Terminal 1 or 3 to get your Sunflower Lanyard. Remember to tell community helpers about your lanyard!

Colour this sunflower by the numbers.

NOW THAT YOU HAVE YOUR LANYARD, IT'S TIME TO FIND YOUR AIRLINE DESK.

Help Lester find his way to the airline counter.

Learn more about the Sunflower Lanyard by scanning this QR code:

GOING THROUGH SECURITY

To get on the plane we need to go through security.

Some things you might need to do at security:

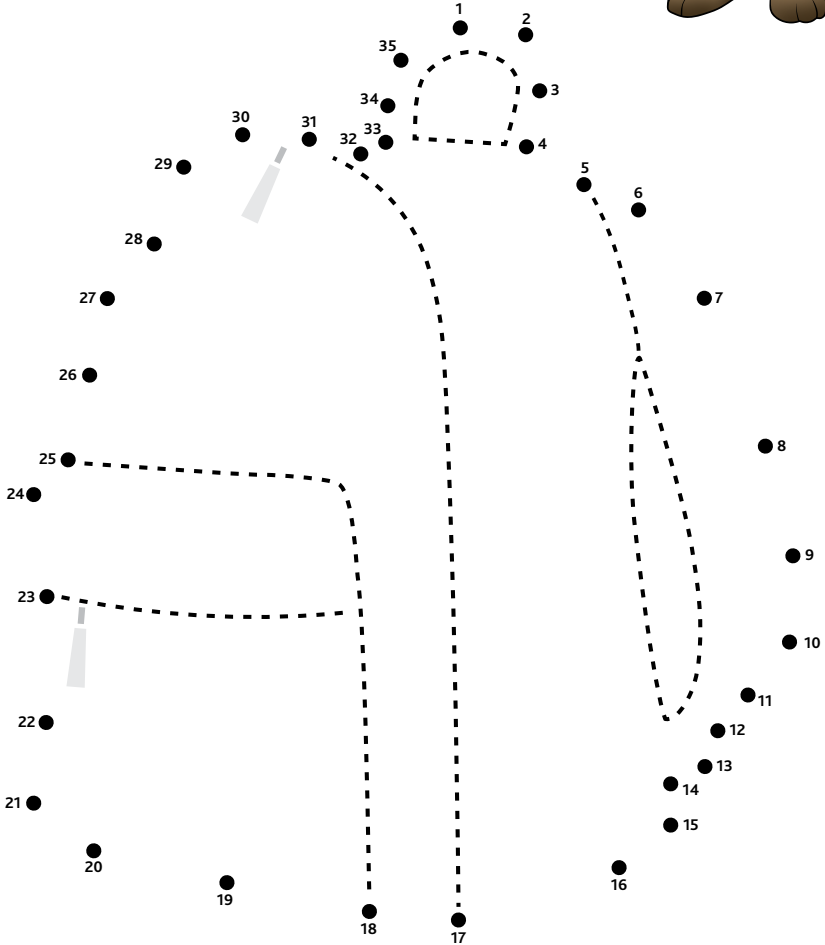

- Wait in a line
- Put your bag in a bin
- Walk through the metal detectors

Draw what you put into the security bin:

Remember to get all your things from the bin.

Connect the dots to draw a backpack.

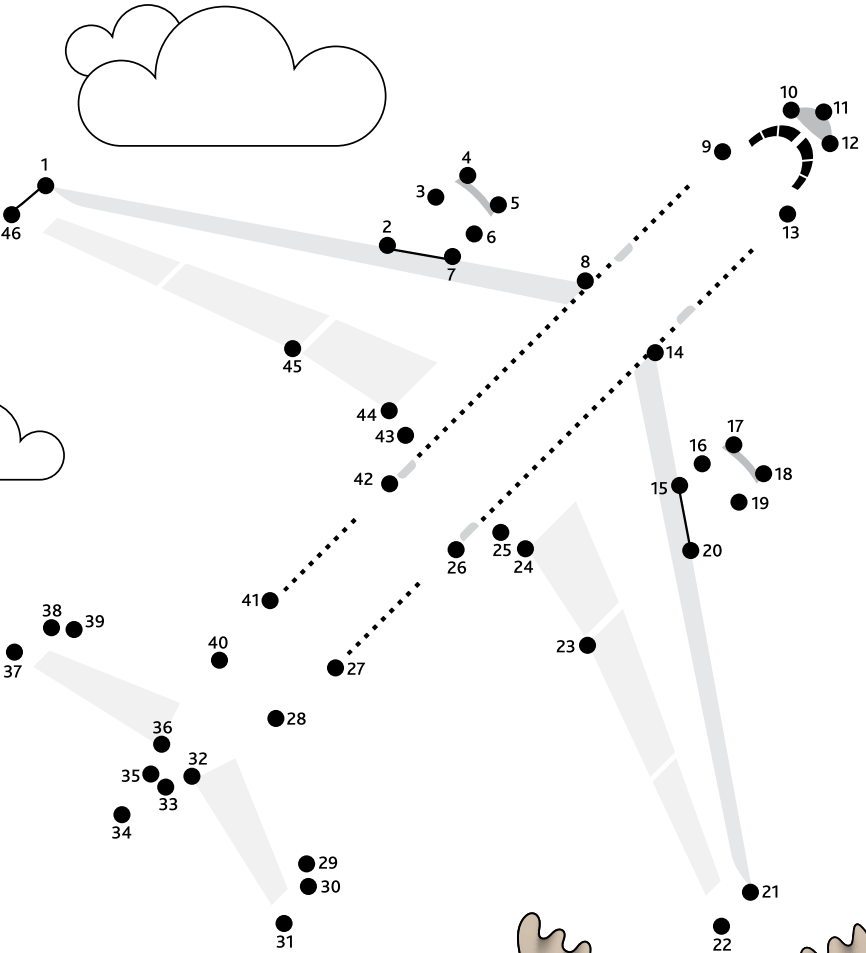

DID YOU KNOW?

Toronto Pearson has 24 bee hives. We call them YYbeeZ.
Colour the bees and flowers below!

DID YOU KNOW?

Toronto Pearson never closes. It is open 24/7, but we limit flights at night. Connect the dots to draw a plane!

DRAW YOUR VIEW

We hope you learned a lot while at the airport!
Have a great flight!
